Perspectives . . . Holland High

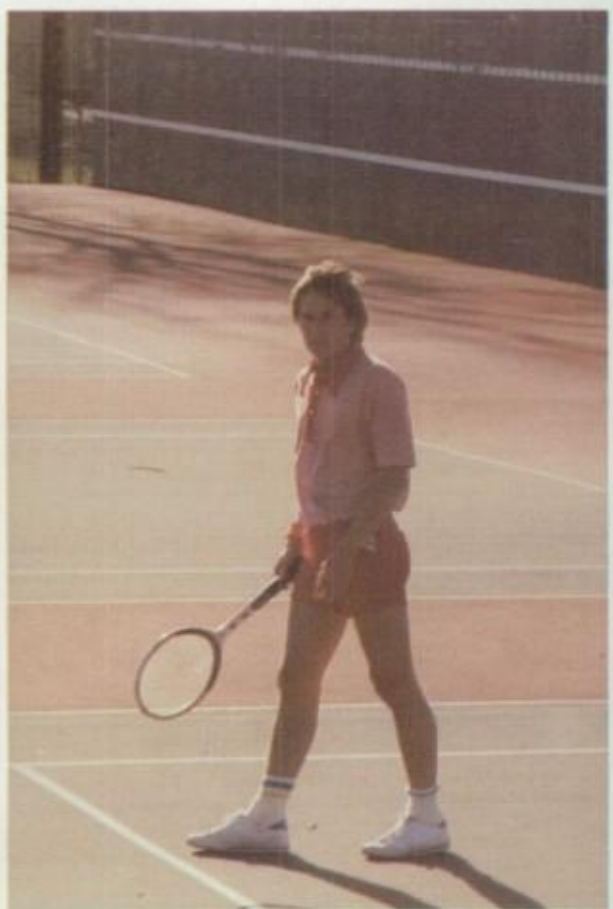

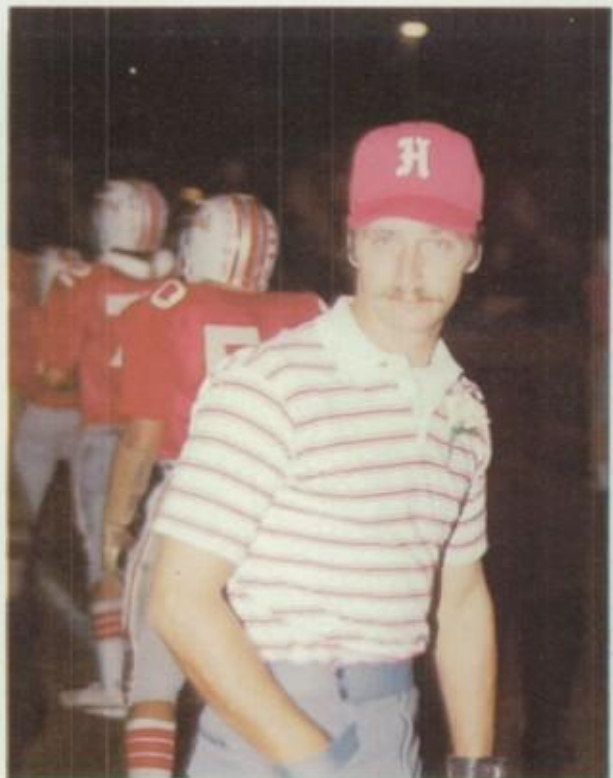

"Time and experience alter all perspectives."

— Henry Adams

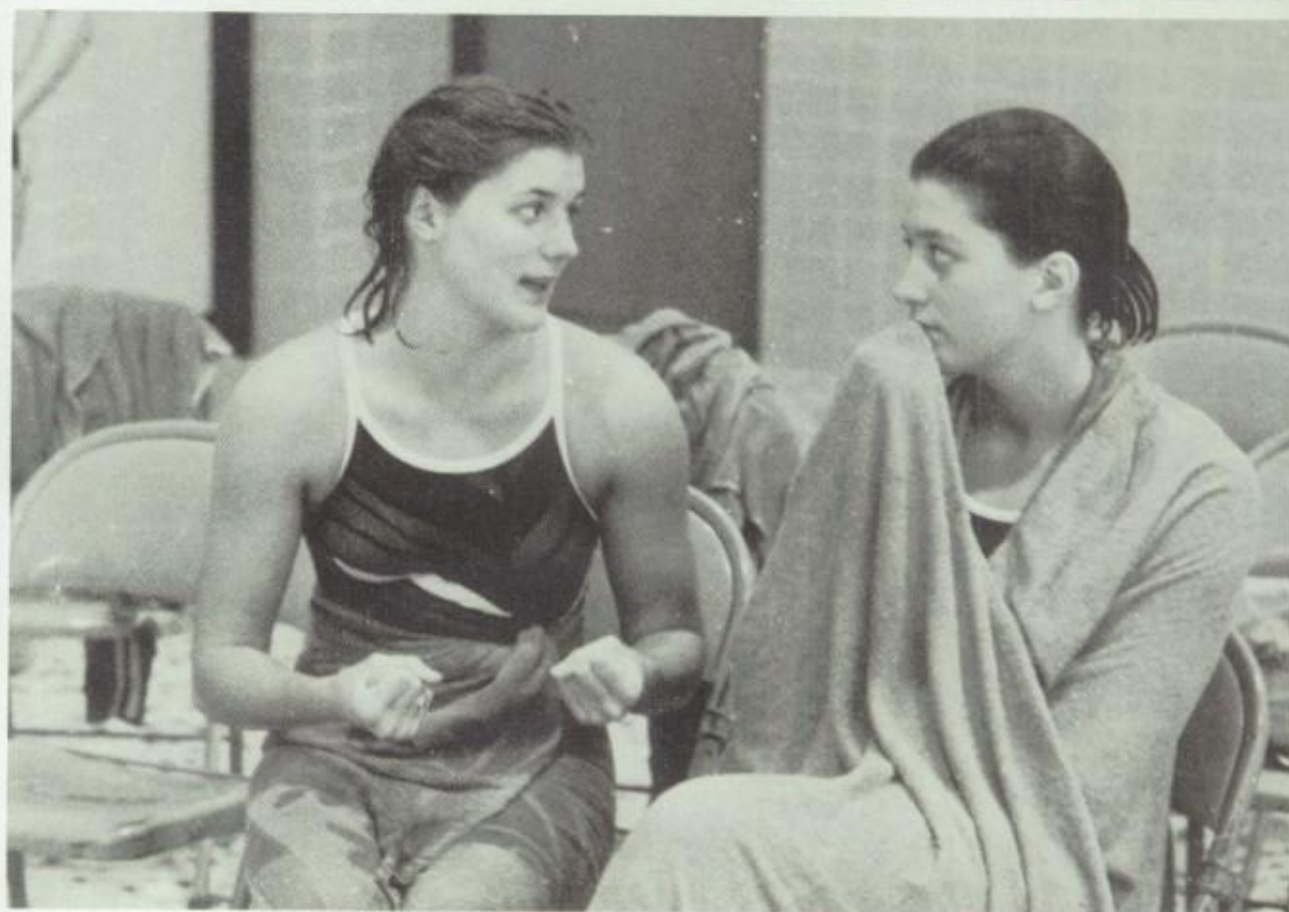

Perspectives . . . People, Places

"It's a good school. I used to think that spirit-wise, we were going downhill, but this year is different — better."

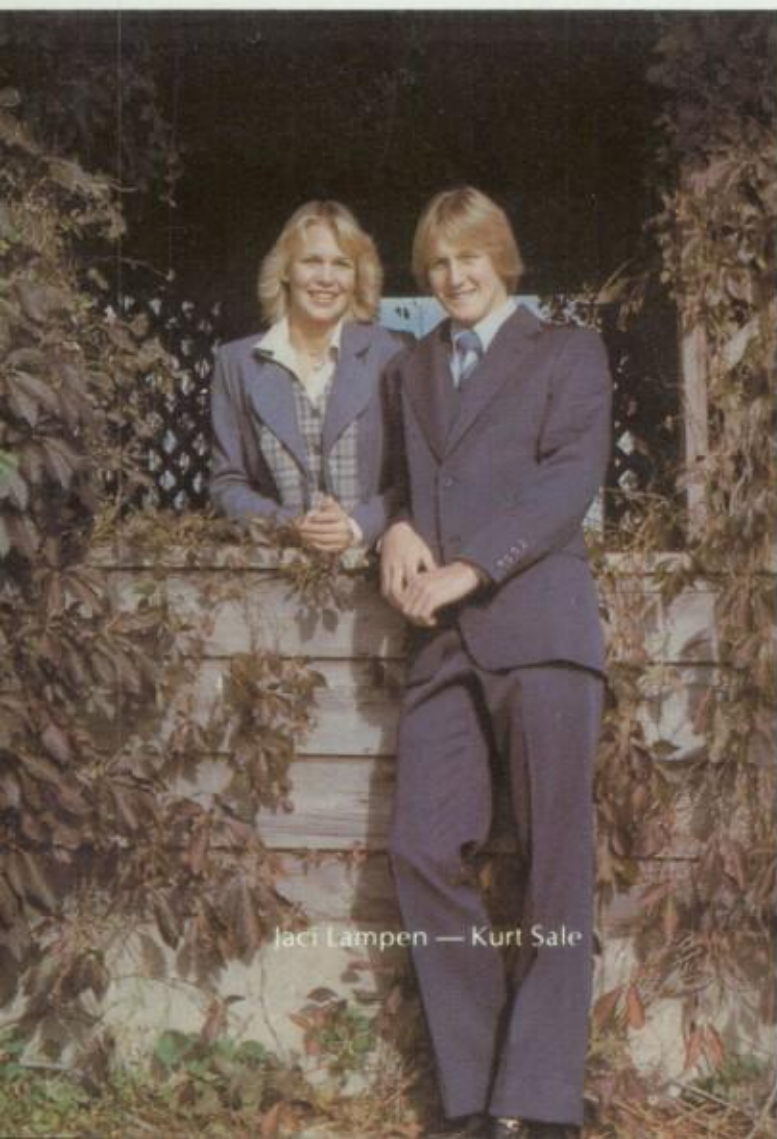

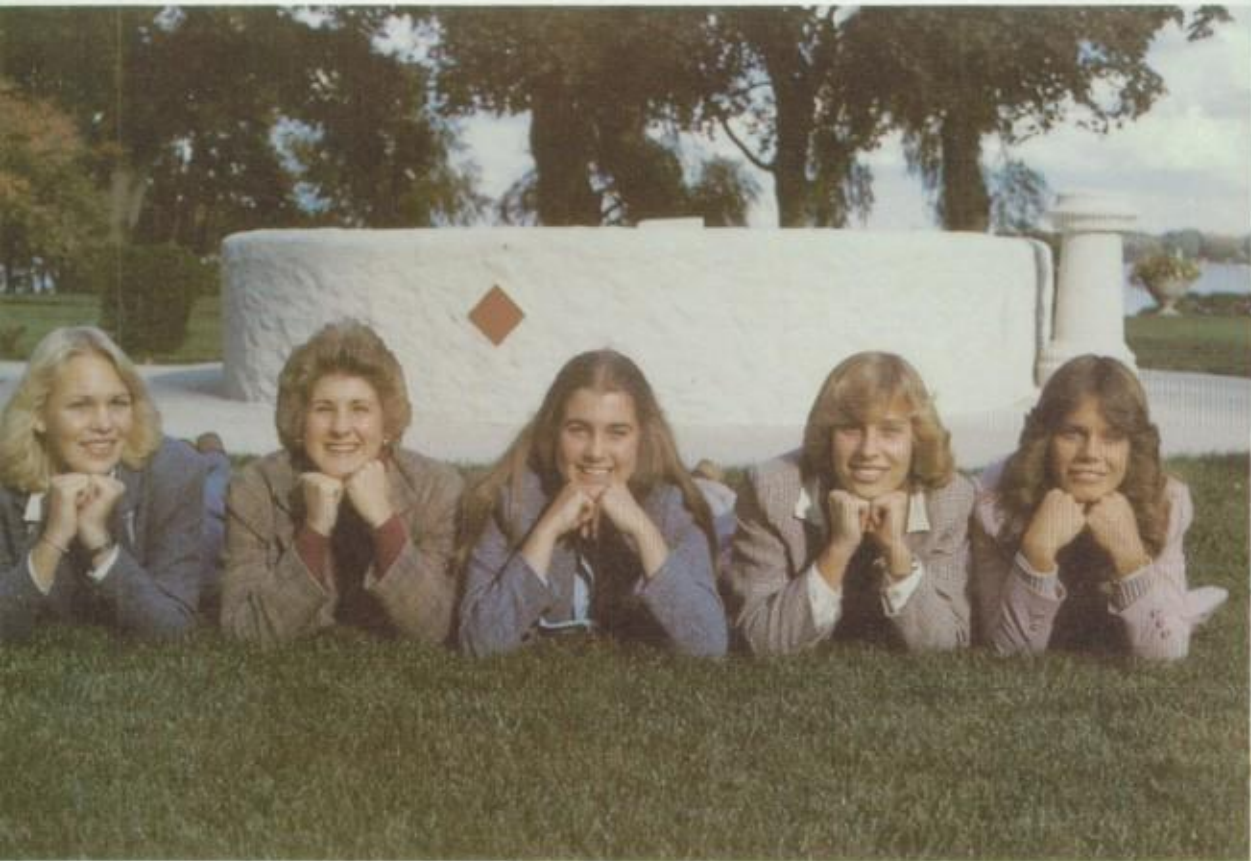

Perspectives . . . Ideas, Goals

"I think it's a good place to learn in; for one thing, it's a beautiful campus."

Perspectives . . . Activities, Spirit

Jaci Lampen — Kurt Sale

Julie Bosch — Kurt De Vette

Jeanne Brink — Jeff Moos

"Homecoming was really neat. I can't compare it to others because this was my first one, but I thought it was a blast."

Perspectives . . .

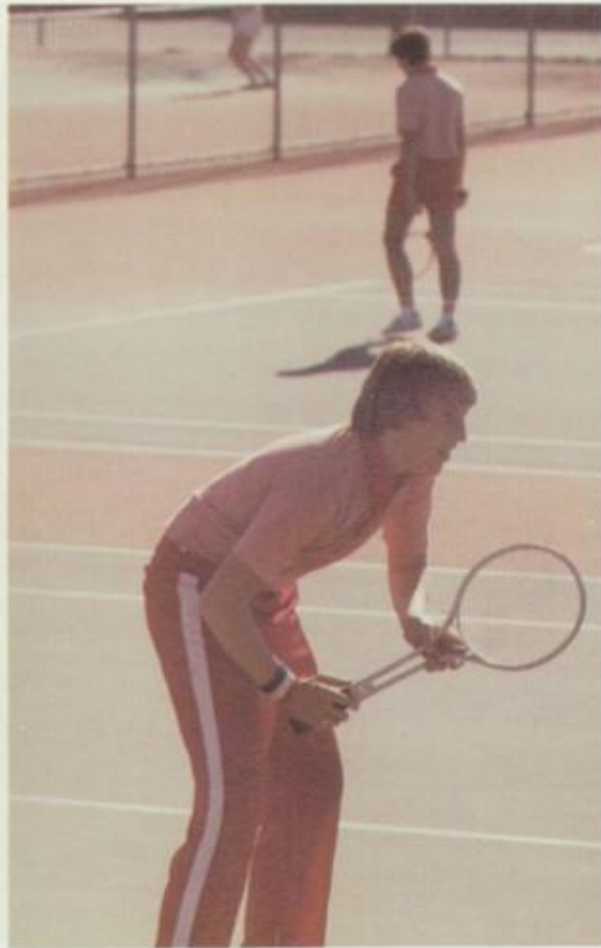

Past, Future

"Academically, it's an average school, but it's the teachers that make it thrive."

Perspectives . . . Life

"Holland High is by far the best school in the area, and I'm not just saying that because I go here."

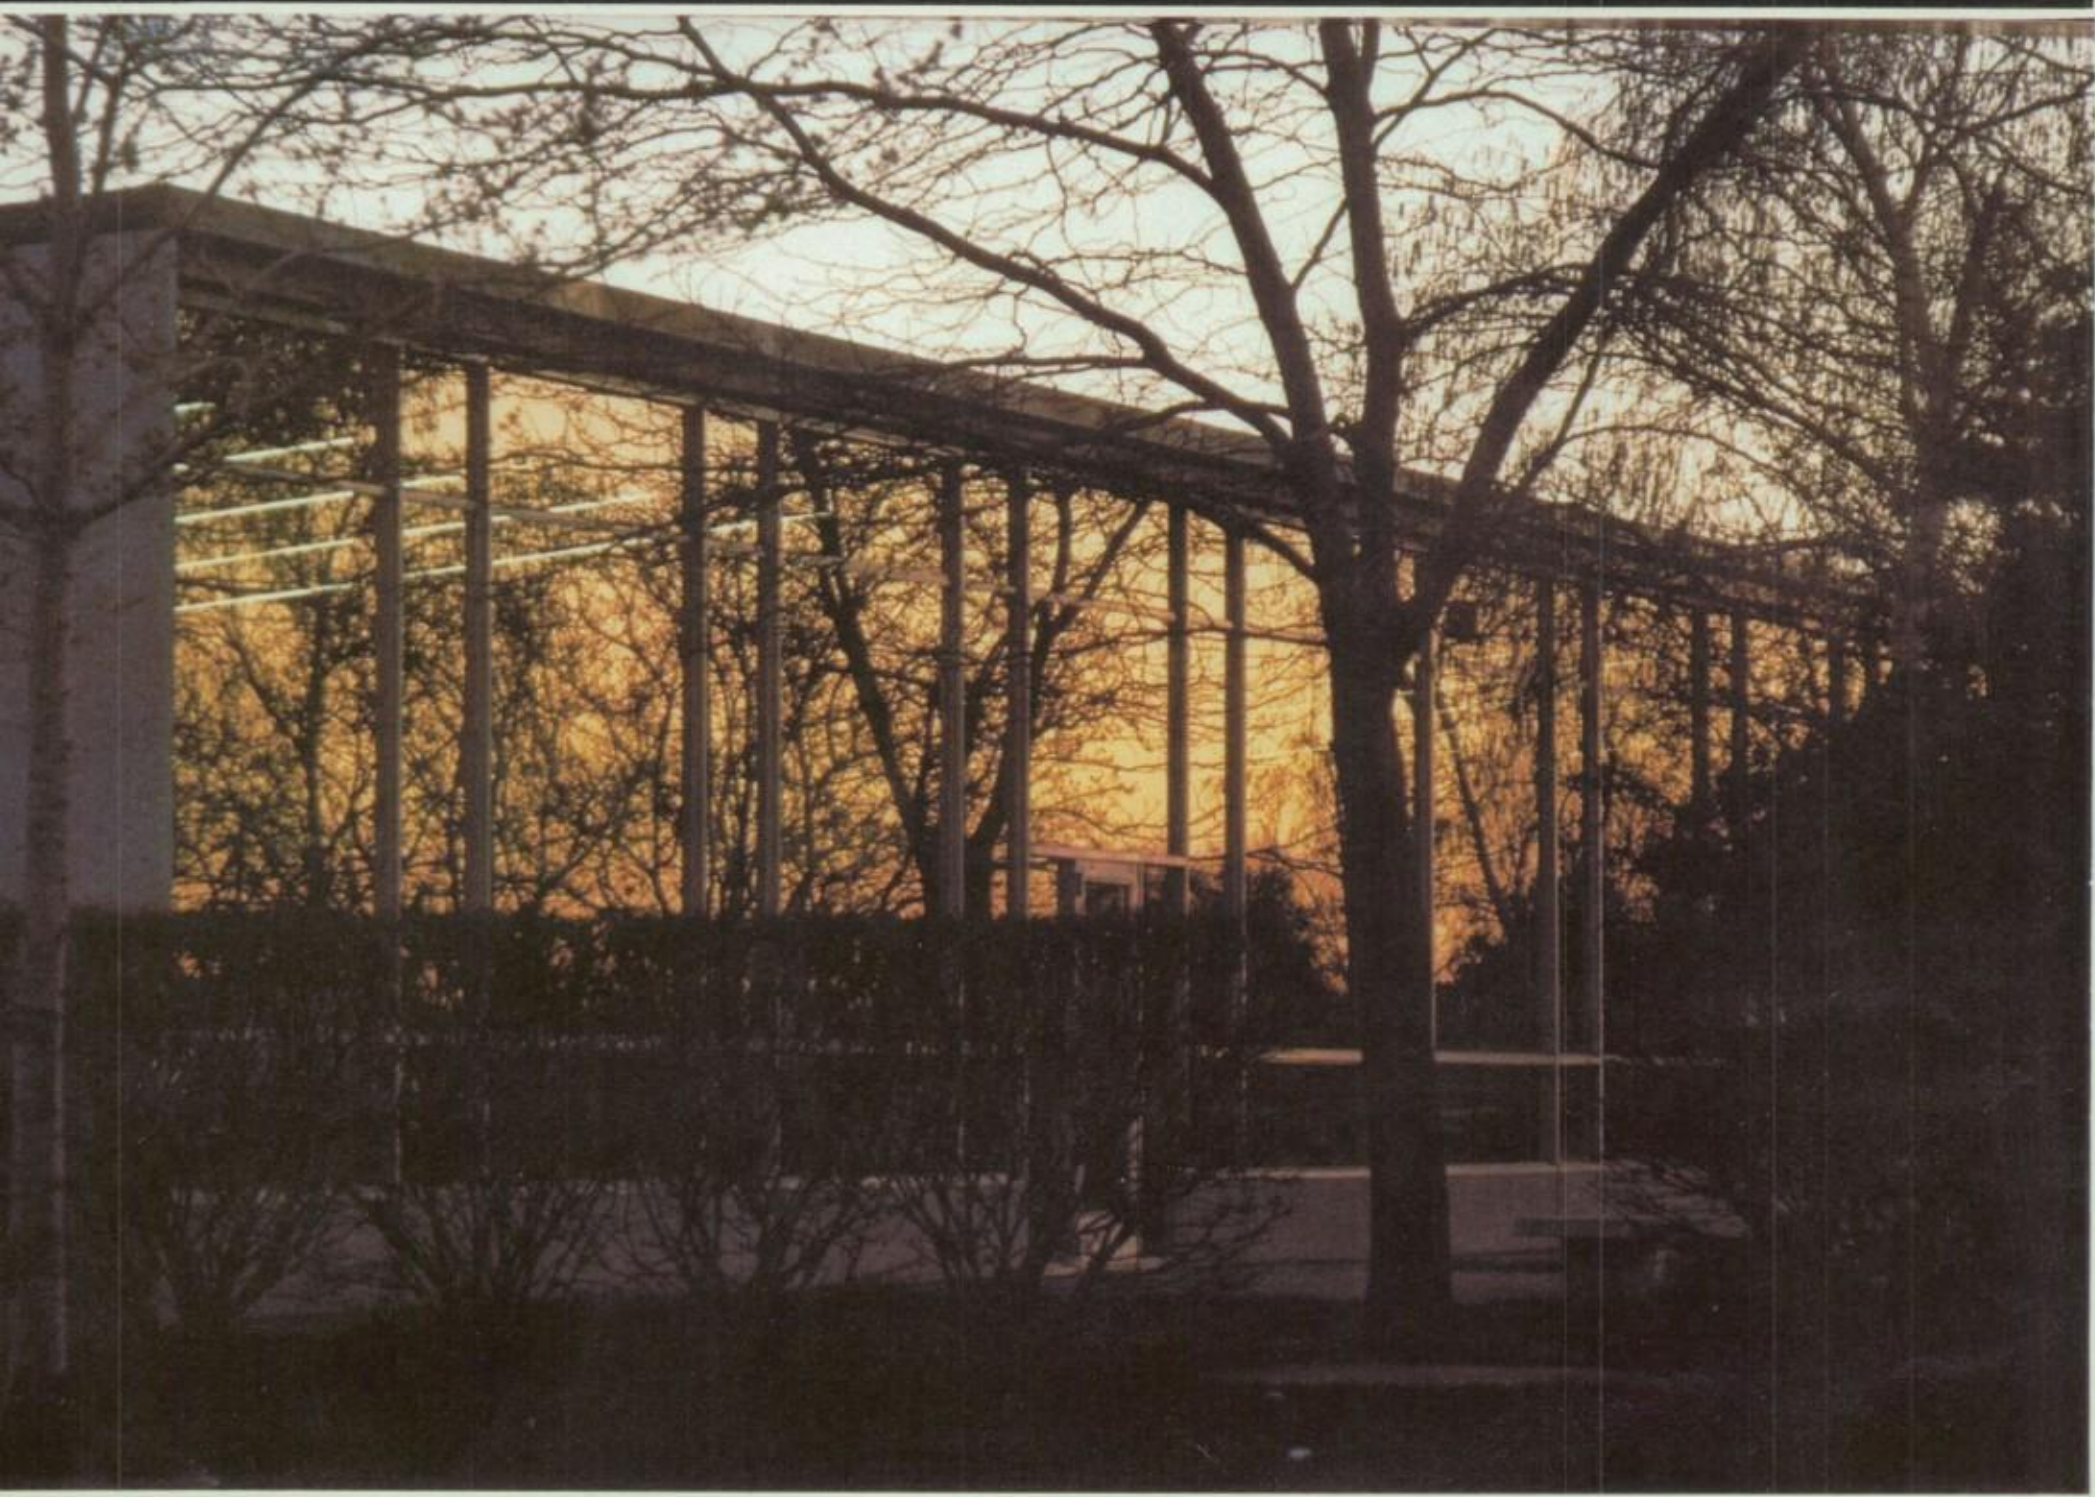

"I love the school — I'm sure most people aren't aware of what we have here."

Bands Entertain Through the Seasons

The Symphony Band

A

The 1978-79 year was a good one for the various bands, all under the direction of Carl Dephouse. It was a transitional year for the marching band as they are becoming a corps band. The Concert and Symphony bands had numerous concerts, and the Pep Band was irreplaceable drawing spirit into the basketball games.

Enthusiasm Binds Orchestra Members Together

The Holland High Symphony Orchestra added a number of new events to their calendar this year. One of these events was a trip to Chicago to see the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. One of the outstanding concerts of the year was the winter concert on Feb. 18, where the Schubert Symphony #5 and Preludium by Bach were performed. Another new event added was the two joint performances with the Holland Christian and West Ottawa Orchestras and Choirs celebrating the 50th anniversary of Tulip Time, at the Tulip Time Variety Show.

They closed their season with the traditional performance at Graduation.

Also, thank you to Essenberg Studio for the great team pictures.

Finally, thank you to all the teachers who were kind enough to miss the staffers on deadline day.

My last year of Holland High School was undeniably a strange one.

Soon it'll be over.

I'll be happy . . .

But I'll be sad too, because it's the end.

The end of HHS, my friends,

And the end is always a little harder when it's brought about by friends.

It's the end of this part of my life.

But one end is always another beginning.

Janet,

Janet, Hello. It was fun having you in typing this semester. You are a pretty neat person. I guess you wouldn't be Janet if you weren't so weird.
Friends Always
Deb VanTubbergen

Janet.
It was very fun
having you in acting and I'm glad I met you because you're a very nice and pretty girl.
Good luck in the future in everything you do.
Remember me always.
Love,
Alicia
Tracie J.

Pasa la mejor

están
bien.
¡Feliz
Navidad!

Dear Janet (I won't mention the various nicknames), Gee, I had so many neat things to write in your yearbook, but now I can't think of anything. Maybe that's the effect you have on people! Well, have a great summer copout. Oh, I know what I was going to say. Gosh, just slipped my mind. Janet you really have a whacky personality and what worries me is that I can really relate to that. Stay that way ok, don't change and we'll be friends for ever and the rest of our 'high school experience.' Oh well, you'll have to come over this summer. Maybe you'll be discovered by a Saturday night live talent scout and can be the second Gilda Radner or John Belushi? See you later your friend (and lover)
 Allan Arnett

To Janet,
 We had a lot of fun with Alan and then peeling in the car and then doing Chinese fire drill I hope next will be just as fun. Your friend
 Lew ^{always} ~~Christensen~~

P.S. Have a peanut butter and jelly
 summer and all year. Sweet dreams.

P.S.S. Janet now next year I expect you to
 a. get a knee parse
 b. get a new coat
 c. oh yea - get your car fixed so I can do more dough-nuts in west otherwise
 parking lot is too small

from a nice morning
 and a nice rest of your life. I hope to see you soon again.
 Love & hope for you always
